

GARDNER NAMES HIS COMMITTEES

Senator Kuchler of Weber is Chairman of Body That Will Control Liquor Legislation.

BENNER SMITH SELECTED WILL BE CHAIRMAN OF JUDICIARY COMMITTEE.

President Henry Gardner of the state senate yesterday announced the personnel of his committees, with the exception of a new standing committee on capital and grounds, which will be named in a few days. Senator Rudolph Kuchler of Weber was given the chairmanship of what will probably be the most important committee in the legislature, the committee on manufactures and commerce. To this committee will be referred all proposed legislation, and on the action of this committee will depend largely the fate of the temperance measures.

Senator Benner X. Smith of Salt Lake was given the chairmanship of the judiciary committee, one of the most important committees in the senate. The chairmen and members of the committees were selected by President Gardner because of their qualifications to deal with the subjects which will be referred to these committees. Thus Senator John Y. Smith of Utah, who is interested in irrigation projects, and is also a bank cashier, was made chairman of the agriculture and irrigation and the banks and banking committees; Senator Bullen of Cache, who is connected with the State Agricultural college, chairman of the education committee, and so on.

The proposed Des Moines plan of city government will be referred to the committee on county and municipal government, of which Senator Hulaniski is chairman. Senator Hulaniski is said to be opposed to the Des Moines plan of government. On the same committee, however, are Senators Benner X. Smith and Carl Badger, both of whom favor a commission form of city government.

Prohibition's Chances.
Senator Kuchler, chairman of the committee on manufactures and commerce, is non-committal to the prohibition question. He was nominated for senator from Weber county at a Republican county convention which refused to put a local option plank in its platform. His Democratic opponent made the campaign on the prohibition question, but Kuchler was elected by a constituency opposed to temperance measures. On this committee are Senators John Y. Smith and Herschel Bullen, Jr., said to have prohibition leanings, and Senators Carl Badger and Hyde, who are supposed to radical temperance legislation. That there will be state legislation.

LaGrippe Weakness
"After a spell of La Grippe I was so weak and exhausted I could hardly stand. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and was soon better in every way."
MRS. F. J. NORTON, Freeville, N. Y.
La Grippe seems to wrench every particle of vitality from its unfortunate victims. That's where the principal danger lies; because it leaves the system in a weakened condition which invites more serious diseases. During convalescence Dr. Miles' Nerve should be taken to restore nervous energy, and overcome this weakening influence which is the most serious effect of La Grippe. The first bottle will benefit; if not, your druggist will return your money.

Would Annex ARIZONA STRIP

Congress Asked to Render Assistance to Isolated Section North of Colorado River.

HONOR LINCOLN'S MEMORY
PUBLIC SERVICES TO BE HELD ON ANNIVERSARY.

The first bill in the house was introduced by Murdock of Beaver, and provides for an amendment to section 52 relating to the breeding of livestock, with special reference to improving the standard. It was referred to the livestock committee.

A resolution was introduced by Ashton of Salt Lake for the public observance of Lincoln's birthday. This resolution reads: "Whereas, This eighth session of the legislature of the state of Utah will be assembled on the 10th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth; and, "Whereas, The annals of our country, though rich in illustrious deeds, disclose no conduct more exalted than his, no sentiments purer than those cherished, no humanity more touching, no courage more remarkable, no forgiveness freer from malice, no achievements greater than those he has left, and no example more to be emulated; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the business of this house be suspended on the 12th day of February, 1909, and that as a particular mark of respect to the memory of the great emancipator, and in recognition of his distinguished career, the house arrange ceremonies fitting the occasion."

The house referred to the committee on resolutions.

To Facilitate Travel.
There is a strip of land in the north of Arizona, north of the Colorado river, that ought to belong to Utah, because the people who live there are closer to Utah than they are to Arizona. As a matter of fact, to bring this about, Mr. Morris of Washington yesterday introduced a house joint memorial asking congress that a part of Arizona be annexed to Utah. The memorial, which was referred to the committee on federal relations, is as follows:

"Memorializing congress and asking that a portion of Arizona, lying north of the Colorado river, be annexed to Utah. The memorial follows: "Whereas, That portion of the territory of Arizona, lying north of the Colorado river, by reason of its geographical position, is cut off from said territory and the benefits of local or other government, and operates as an impassable barrier separating such portion from the rest of the territory and rendering communication between the inhabitants of the two subdivisions almost impossible, thus depriving the inhabitants of the territory north of said river of the benefits of local or territorial government; and, "Whereas, Such inhabitants have their interests in common with the people of Utah, and all their associations and dealings with the latter, and it is desired by them that said area north of said river be detached from Arizona and annexed to the state of Utah; and,

"Whereas, Such area is deprived of water and other resources by which alone it can be developed or become valuable, and its physical conditions are such that its future development, either in cultivation or otherwise, is impossible, and it can be used only for grazing purposes, so that its segregation from the counties and territory of which it is now a part will prove of no disadvantage to them; and,

"Whereas, The greater portion of the property, both real and personal, within such area, is owned by the inhabitants of the state of Utah, and the value of the property within such section will not increase by the scarcity of water and the absence of resources therein, and the greater portion of the property therein consists of cattle, horses and sheep which graze in Utah and within such section, and are recrossing the boundary line so that it is impossible either for the state of Utah or the territory of Arizona to obtain revenue by assessment or otherwise from such property; and,

"Whereas, By reason of such area, being isolated from the rest of the territory of Arizona, it is impossible to administer the laws of said territory, or enforce the criminal statutes, or the legal ordinances or provisions, or preserve peace and order; as a result of which criminals rendezvous therein and obtain immunity from prosecution; and,

LEGISLATION QUESTION

Legislation Will Probably Be in Hands of Two Salt Lake Members in House.

The present program of the prohibitionists is carried out the prohibition measure, which will cause much discussion in the legislature this year, will be introduced in a few days by Representative E. C. Ashton of Salt Lake. He and Representative Joseph J. Cannon, also of Salt Lake, will be given charge of this legislation in the house. They will work for the passage of a bill providing for absolute prohibition.

The house is divided on the liquor question. Those favoring prohibition are some absolute prohibition and a few are opposed to legislation of any kind respecting the liquor question. Further, they wish to enlarge the powers of the authorities in enforcing the present laws. The action of the committee to which the bill will be referred will to a large extent influence the vote of the members of the house. This committee will be that on manufactures and commerce. The members of this committee, however, have not yet been decided upon, nor has there been any suggestion with reference to who shall be the members of this committee. The judiciary committee will also pass on the bill, deciding whether or not the closing of saloons is a necessary part of the prohibition measure. Even the anti-prohibitionists concede that there is some possibility of a prohibition measure passing the house, but they are confident that the bill will die an unburied child in the senate.

The members of the house of representatives from thirteen counties in the state are pledged by the Republican caucus platform to a local option. Many are pledged to prohibition. There is some difference of opinion with reference to the meaning of the instruction inserted in the county platforms as a temperance measure. This pledge may militate in the minds of the members of the house. Some members so pledged declare that the local option plank meant local option and nothing more, and the instruction to vote for local option was a direct instruction to vote against absolute state-wide prohibition. There are others, however, who declare that the instruction meant a local option, with the implied instruction to get absolute prohibition if possible.

Among certain senators who are opposed to prohibition there is a well defined program to chloroform in committee any prohibition bill that may reach the senate.

BOOTH GETS PLACE ON GOVERNOR'S STAFF

Governor William Spry will announce his appointments to the governor's staff today. The members of the staff will be chosen largely from among personal friends of the governor. The "federal" board of the staff will be composed of A. P. Kesler, assistant postmaster, is to be appointed to the governor's staff and attorney, is to be made a colonel on the governor's staff and it is possible that others from the federal building are to be named.

Among the members of Governor Cutler's staff who are to be reappointed, are General E. E. Wedgwood, assistant adjutant general, H. H. Lund, Colonel A. P. Kesler, quartermaster general, and Lieutenant Colonel Joseph J. Hiram. Booth will probably succeed Colonel A. B. Irvine as judge advocate general of the National Guard of Utah.

The members of Governor Cutler's staff who are almost sure to be retired are: Brigadier General Samuel C. Park, colonel in retirement or consultant, general, Ogden; Colonel A. S. Bower, surgeon general, Salt Lake; Colonel A. B. Irvine, judge advocate general, Salt Lake; Colonel J. A. Greenwood, inspector general, Salt Lake; Colonel George A. Seaman, inspector general of target practice, Ogden; and Lieutenant Colonel Miles R. Taylor, aide de camp, Salt Lake.

HOLDOVER SENATORS GIVEN CHOICE SEATS

When the senate convened yesterday the senators were occupying their seats according to the rearrangement, giving in Utah such choice of seats. The senators are occupying the fourteen desks used by the city councilmen and three additional desks, all arranged in a semi-circle before the president's desk. Commencing at the seat to the extreme right of the semi-circle the seating arrangement is as follows: Marks, Seely, Miller, Hulaniski, Kuchler, Benner X. Smith, Stookey, Williams, Bullen, Hirsley, Hyde, Sevy, John Y. Smith, Brinkerhoff, Badger, Wilson.

The governor's message was printed in the senate journal, but on motion of Senator Kuchler the re-reading of it with the journal of the proceedings of yesterday was waived. The senate bills No. 2 and No. 3 were introduced by Senator Carl Badger. The first was a bill to amend the law relating to the addition to the standing committee of a committee on capital and capital grounds. The second was a bill to amend the law relating to the addition to the standing committee of a committee on capital and capital grounds. He did not introduce the bill to amend the law relating to the addition to the standing committee of a committee on capital and capital grounds. He did not introduce the bill to amend the law relating to the addition to the standing committee of a committee on capital and capital grounds.

SECRET REVEALED

Said to Have Benefited and Cured Hundreds of Chronic Dyspeptics—Clip and Save This.

It is seldom that a great specialist will give away the secrets of his profession, but occasionally we find one who is liberal.

A noted medical man says: Always prescribe the following with the greatest success for indigestion, acute or chronic; dyspepsia, sour stomach, distress after eating, such as heart palpitation, shortness of breath, constipation, depression, headache and biliousness. These simple but powerfully blended ingredients can be relied upon in every case. Mix in a bottle two ounces of syrup of ginger, one ounce compound essence carbolol and two ounces compound essence of Sassafras. Take one or two teaspoonfuls after each meal; or before, to excite the appetite, if necessary. For constiveness, a dose at night will do much good. Let children who have stomachache take this freely. Adults can find nothing that will do so much permanent good and at the same time give prompt relief from distress.

KANSAS FAVORS DES MOINES PLAN

Governor and Other State Officials for Modern Scheme of Municipal Government.

Friends of the Des Moines plan of municipal government, which will be a part of the important legislation introduced in the assembly this year, are much encouraged by the stand taken by the new governor of Kansas and the other state officials of that state. In effect the sentiment in Kansas is for the Des Moines plan of government, and their declaration on this point is unequivocal. In the current number of Collier's Weekly the situation respecting the new order of things in Kansas is summarized in a brief editorial paragraph. This reads: "The new governor of Kansas made a million dollars in railroad construction. He has exceptional administrative qualities. He has given up business and gone into the public service, thus devoting his talents to the service of the people. Some of the best informed citizens of his state believe that he will accomplish important things. Certainly the program mapped out at a recent conference looks promising. There were present members of the legislature, the attorney general and a number of party leaders."

The things they plan: First, a public utility law; second, a legislative reference library, such as has been found so useful at Madison, Wis. (now being built along the lines of the Madison library); third, legislation to prevent lobbying; fourth, the Massachusetts ballot, the much needed bond at machine government; fifth, the coordinated of the educational institutions of the state; sixth, the Des Moines plan of city government with its non-partisan primary, its initiative and referendum and its provision of public officials; seventh, broadening and humanizing of the state penal institute.

"Bringing about such changes will be a superior way for a state legislature to spend its time."

FOR ASSISTANCE TO UTAH'S ADULT BLIND

The board of directors of the Western Association of the Adult Blind will give its annual reception Friday evening from 7 till 10 o'clock in Eagle's hall, corner Second South and West Temple. Governor Spry will preside.

In his message to the legislature Governor Spry made a recommendation that provisions be made for the adult blind of the state in addition to the school for the deaf and blind in Ogden. The governor suggested that an institution for the adult blind might be made self-sustaining. The manufacture of baskets, brushes and other articles of similar character would find ready sale, said the governor.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY MAY BE LEGAL HOLIDAY

If a bill introduced in the senate yesterday by Senator Carl Badger and a resolution in the house by Representative E. C. Ashton become law, Utah will observe the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12, each year, as a national holiday. It is suggested that this day be made a public holiday was contained in the governor's message.

The senate bill went to the senate judiciary committee and the house bill goes to the judiciary committee of the house as soon as that committee is named.

Lincoln's birthday is now a holiday in fourteen states of the union and it is probable that within a few years it will be declared a public holiday in all of the northern states. The sentiment among the members of the Utah state legislature is strongly in favor of following the governor's suggestion and it is expected the measure will pass both houses by a unanimous vote.

TO PROVIDE FUND FOR STATE CAPITOL

Every effort will be made at this session of the legislature to secure the passage of a measure to provide for the raising of funds to build a state capitol. To facilitate the investigation of plans for the accomplishment of this work a special committee on capitol and capitol grounds was named in the senate and may be in the house. It is conceded that the work of providing funds and erecting the building on Capitol hill will take several years, and for that reason it is urged that the initial steps be taken immediately.

SCHOONER WRECKED.

Two Firemen Washed Overboard and Drowned Off Surf, Cal.

Surf, Cal., Jan. 13.—The steam schooner Sybil Marston, Captain Schillinsky, which left Gray's harbor Thursday for Redondo with 1,000,000 feet of lumber, went ashore about a mile south of Surf at midnight Tuesday and is now a total wreck. John McCarty, Dick O'Neil, premier of San Francisco, were washed from the deck by the high waves after the vessel struck and were drowned.

The wreck was caused by the mistaking of lights in the railroad depot at Surf for the lighthouse on Point Arguello. The ship struck the rocks and stove a large hole amidships. The vessel, which is owned by Escher & Minor of San Francisco, and valued at about $150,000, will be a total loss. Part of the cargo of lumber probably will be salvaged.

The schooner carried a crew of twenty men besides the captain and two mates. Account of the high water which washed the lumber from the deck, but today a line was run from shore to the wrecked craft and the men reached land in safety. They are now camped on the beach and will spend the night in the waiting room of the Surf station.
